Number Day!

NSPCC Number Day 2019 was a great success! We're pleased to announce that Max in Year 2 won the KS1 marbles in a jar competition—estimating that there were 111 when there were 5 less. Sophia in Year 3 won the KS2 marbles in the jar—estimating 350 marbles when there were only 21 more. Excellent estimating skills! Naomi in Year 1 won the most creative Number Day outfit with Kimora in Year 4 being awarded the prize for KS2. Thank you to everyone for embracing all things Maths! We raised over £300 for NSPCC.

Online Safety

The internet matters website (www.internetmatters.org/) is a brilliant place to find out how to protect children online. It has information about all the latest games, apps and social media sites so you can find out whether they are appropriate for your child and what other parents have said about them. It also has information about the PEGI ratings of different games.
