

Monday 6th October 2014

L1: to write with purpose

Success Criteria

I can identify and use an appropriate tone for the audience.
I can use the main features of the type of writing required.
I can compose, rehearse and develop sentences.

REPORT WRITING

Detailed and relevant information about the subject matter.
Sub-headings to help organise writing.
Written in the third person.

Morrison Shelter

Don't have a garden? Not to worry, as the new Morrison Shelter is here. It provides an indoor hut ~~to~~ that will secure that you and your loved ones won't get ~~hurt~~ <sup>injured</sup> by falling debris.

This sturdy device ~~with~~ is specially designed using metal wires for added protection to keep you and your loved one safe. As an added bonus you could use it as a ping pong table for family fun.

The Anderson Shelter

A must have feature for garden and an affordable <sup>your</sup> means of keeping you and your loved ones safe. ~~Easy~~ Easy to erect and an added bonus of a lovely garden patch. What is it?

An Anderson Shelter. Spacious enough to accommodate six people, (and teddy) with added protection and a cosy living space an Anderson Shelter ~~is~~ can do absolutely everything. ✓

The Blackout

Another means of keeping you safe is the blackout where everyone covers everything (including furniture) in black in order to help the war effort. ✓

You have clearly identified and used an appropriate tone for the audience, you have reassured them without scaring them or how to be safe during the war.